He shall state every question properly presented to the Council, and before putting it to a vote shall ask, "Is the Council ready for the question?" Should no member offer to speak he shall put it, after which no member shall be permitted to speak upon it. It shall be the duty of the presiding officer, and the privilege of any member of the Council, to call a member to order who violates an established Rule of Order.

Notices of Business.

That the Clerk publicly exhibit all notices of intention to introduce By-Laws by any member of the Municipal Council, for a period of not less than one week previous to such meeting of the Council.

Order of Proceedings.

That at all meetings of the Council the Clerk shall read first the minutes of the previous meeting of the Council, the said minutes to be approved, or amended and adopted. Motions to be moved and seconded.

That no motion or amendment be entertained by the Council but such as has been moved and seconded.

That no motion so received be withdrawn, unless by consent of the Council.

Amendments.

That when an amendment is moved upon a motion, no further amendments be moved or taken into consideration until the first be disposed of, but any number of amendments may be brought forward in succession, and the question must be put in such a manner that if one amendment be negatived another amendment may be moved upon the original motion. But if an amendment be affirmed, it shall then form the motion under consideration, whereon further amendments may be moved, and if after the disposal of an amendment no second or further amendments be moved the question must ultimately be put upon the original or amended motion (as the case may be), in order to its being passed as a resolution. No member shall move more than one amendment to the same motion.

Order of Speaking.

That members of the Council shall not speak more than once to the same question, except in explanation, or the mover of the motion in reply, which reply shall conclude the discussion.

Speaking on Amendments.

That an amendment being moved no member of the Council who has spoken to the original motion, can speak again, except in explanation, or the mover thereof in reply, until the amendment has been put, and become the amended motion before the Council. Councillors may speak on each amendment. That when discussion arises upon amended motions the mover of the amendment, which has displaced the original motion, may speak in reply, and so on in like manner in respect to any further and displacing amendments.

Committee of the Whole.

Committees.

The Municipal Council may, out of their own body, from time to time appoint such and so many Committees, and consisting of such members as they may think fit, for any purposes which, in the discretion of the Municipal Council, would be better regulated and managed by means of such Committees; but all proceedings of such Committees shall be subject to the approval of the Municipal Council, and the Reeve shall be, ex officio, a member of all Committees. In case the Reeve shall refuse or neglect to call a meeting within twenty-four hours after a requisition for that purpose, signed by three members of the Council, shall have been presented to him, it shall be lawful for the said three members to call a meeting of the Council by giving such notice as is hereinafter declared on that behalf, such notice to be signed by the said three members instead of the Reeve, and stating therein the business proposed to be transacted at such meeting, and in every case a summons to the Municipal Council specifying the business to be transacted at such meeting, signed by the Reeve, (or the said three Councillors, as the case may be,) shall be left at the usual place of abode of every member of the Council, or at the premises in respect of which he is placed in the Municipal Assessment Roll, one clear day at least before such meeting, and no business shall be transacted at such meeting other than the business which is specified in the notice.

Quorum.

That in all cases, when not otherwise specially provided, two members shall form a quorum of any Committee appointed by the Council, the first Councillor named on any Committee to be Chairman.

Reports of Committees.

All reports of Committees shall be in writing. A Committee may be authorized to take up all matters referred by the Council to a preceding Committee, who have not been fully discharged.

That no opinion of Counsel be taken at the expense of the Corporation without a resolution of the Council.

Adjournment.

A motion of adjournment shall always be in order, except, 1st, when a member is in possession of the floor; 2nd, while a vote is being taken; 3rd, when adjournment was the last preceding motion; 4th, when it has been decided that the previous question shall be taken.

To amend Rules of Order.

That no Rule of Order or By-Law shall be altered or amended until notice has been given in writing one week previous; the said notice shall express the alteration or amendment contemplated, and shall be handed to the Clerk, who shall read it to the Council. Such alterations or amendments shall not be acted upon unless approved by a vote of the Council.

No By-Law shall be read any more than twice in any one day, except by a vote of five members of the Council.

This By-Law may be cited for all purposes as "The By-Law for regulating the meeting and general conduct of business of the Municipal Council of the Corporation of Delta."

BE IT therefore enacted by the Reeve and Council of the said Corporation of Delta as follows:—

1. That from and after the passing of this By-Law all swine found at large or straying in any public way or thoroughfare, or upon any enclosed or unenclosed land within the corporate limits shall be deemed a nuisance, and may be dealt with as hereinafter mentioned.

2. All swine so found at large or straying as aforesaid within the corporate limits may be taken up and impounded if practicable by any person, and taken to the most convenient place, and there properly cared for for the space of seven days, unless sooner redeemed.

3. Every animal so impounded as aforesaid shall forthwith be advertised by a notice in writing posted at the post office at Ladner's Landing, and also in the most public place in the vicinity of where such swine are impounded; such notice shall contain a reasonable description of the animals, the date and hour of impounding thereof, and shall specify when and where to be sold, and shall be posted for the space of seven days.

7. In case of any animals being impounded under this By-Law doing any damage, such damage may be appraised by three Fence Viewers of the Municipality, or a majority of them.

8. The owner of any animal so impounded may at any time prior to the sale thereof, as hereinafter provided, have the same released on payment to the person so impounding of the fines, damages, charges and expenses chargeable thereon under the authority of this By-Law as aforesaid.

9. Every animal so impounded as aforesaid which shall not have been redeemed within seven days from the day on which it shall have been advertised as aforesaid, except the seventh day fall on Sunday, in that case on the following day, shall be offered for sale by public auction, at the place so impounded, by the person so impounding (such person not requiring an auctioneer's licence), and shall be sold to the highest bidder, who shall thereupon become absolute owner thereof, any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

10. The proceeds of every such sale as aforesaid

11. If the money to arise on the sale of any animal as aforesaid shall not be sufficient to satisfy the amount which shall have been chargeable thereon due to the person so impounding, in respect of the impounding, damages, and feeding such animal which shall have been sold, the deficiency shall be deemed a penalty, and shall be recoverable from the owner of the said animal in a summary way before any Justice of the Peace.
